

Noval Tawny Reserve Port

Porto, Douro, Portugal

PRESENTATION

Noval Tawny Reserve is an amber-red port. It is made from a blend of superior quality wines aged for an average of 7 years. This prolonged ageing gives it a silky, creamy character with a nutty flavour. Elegance and finesse characterise the finish.

ELABORATION

WINEMAKING

This Port is vinified by pumping over in stainless steel vats at a temperature controlled between 26-28°C.

THE WINE
